

Power Outages

In the event of widespread power outages, the City of Monona does not have generators to supply power to private residences. Citizens concerned about flooding should consider renting or purchasing a generator or a gasoline-powered trash pump to keep sump pumps working during a power outage.